 Newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. James W. Leech are honeymooning in San Francisco. Mrs. Leech was the former Donna Jean Hester before her marriage at the First Christian church on Saturday, July 6. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Hester, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Leech.—Seeman Photo.

Donna Jean Hester Becomes Bride of James W. Leech

Donna Jean Hester became the bride of James W. Leech at the First Christian church, Saturday, July 6, at 8 p.m. Rev. J. J. Walker officiated at the double ring ceremony and Mr. Hester gave his daughter away.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Hester, 1937 Middle Brook rd., and Mr. Leech is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Leech, 727 Border ave.

For her wedding the bride wore a gown of white embroidered tulle with a fitted bodice and a full flowing skirt made up of tiers of nylon lace. Her veil was fingertip length and she carried a bouquet of white daisies and orchids.

Karen Hester, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Joan Pour and Donna Specht were bridesmaids, Frank Pour III was best man and Harvey

Moose Lodge Dinner Dance Celebration

The Torrance Moose lodge and chapter will celebrate the graduation of high school of forty-one Mooseheart boys and girls at a public dinner and dance to be held at the Moose lodge, 1744 W. Carson st., Saturday, July 13, starting at 6 p.m., Fred Lydy, governor, announced today.

A milestone in the lives of 23 girls and 18 boys, children of departed Moose members, was reached when they received their high school and vocational school diplomas in recent ceremonies at the world-famous "Child City" at Mooseheart, Illinois. The graduation ceremonies will be observed by the Torrance Moose during the Saturday evening festive affair.

A public breakfast will be held at the lodge hall on Sunday morning, July 14, starting at 9 a.m., with the receipts collected to be donated to the proposed "Little Company of Mary Hospital."

Local Women Hawaii Bound

The Torrance Business and Professional Women's club will be represented at the regional conference in Hawaii by Bess Tufts, Frances Drale, Tessa Burke and Jean Davis.

The delegates will sail aboard the Lurline from Los Angeles harbor Friday, July 12, 4 p.m. and will fly back in two weeks.

The next dinner meeting will be held at Capri's, July 15, 7:30 p.m. Lucille Lewellen will be the speaker.

TWIN BOYS

Mr. and Mrs. Don Benton, 5024 Cathann st., are the parents of twin sons who were born Saturday, July 6, at Torrance Memorial hospital.

The boys were named James Wilson and Joel Thomas.

The first baby arrived at 8:32 a.m. and the other six minutes later.

Mother and sons are doing nicely.

Silver Bluebirds Cookout With Dads

The Silver Bluebirds, under the supervision of their leader, Mary McCormick, had a cookout with their fathers at Torrance park July 7. The menu consisted of potato chips, baked beans, tomatoes, watermelon, sonny boy drinks, and cup cakes. Barbequed hotdogs were prepared by the fathers, and marshmallows were roasted by the Bluebirds.

NURSING STUDENTS HONORED

Newly capped Vocational Nursing students at Harbor Junior college and Harbor General hospital were honored by a luncheon at the home of their instructor, Miss Ruth Jane Morrison, 621 S. Gertruda ave., Redondo Beach, recently.

The students started their 7-month period of clinical rotation through the Harbor General hospital services. During the past 5 months they have studied nursing subjects in the classrooms at Harbor Junior college and on the demonstration wards at Harbor General hospital.

At the end of their twelve months of study and practice, they will become eligible to take the state board examinations for licensure as licensed vocational nurses. Three new hospitals and additional wards built on the present harbor area hospitals create a tremendous demand for their services on graduation.

Among specially honored students who qualified for Alpha Gamma Sigma Junior college scholarship sorority by their outstanding grades was Mrs. Margaret Champion.

Members of the capped group from Torrance were The Mmes. Marjorie Chapman, 1304 Hickory ave., Melvina Lloyd, 20015 Grevillea ave., Barbara Pack, 2444 W. 236th place, and Miss Mae Nakatani, 22130 Grace st.

Bahamas Visitor
 Mary Baskovich of 3209 190th st., was one of 550 Nassau visitors attending the Bahamas convention of Alpha Delta Pi sorority. She is a student at the University of Southern California.

Faculty Luncheon

The faculty of the 186th Street school were guests at a luncheon given by Mrs. Herman Eisenbeiss, P-TA president, on the last day of school. The luncheon was given as a token of her appreciation for the cooperation she has received from the faculty during her two-year term.
